LOAD CONFIRMATION TERMS are subject to SPI General Terms and Conditions and Carrier Agreement. You must indicate any change prior to pick-up at first shipper location; otherwise, Carrier is deemed to have accepted all rates, terms, conditions and instructions as contained herein notwithstanding that this document is unsigned. Carrier must transport load according to all State, Provincial and Federal regulations on their OWN equipment. If load is moving in California Carrier certifies that it is registered and fully compliant with California's Trucking regulations. Carrier will assign a driver who is capable, without violating his statutory hours of service, to meet the delivery date and time as specified on the Load Confirmation. DOUBLE-BROKERAGE IS NOT ACCEPTABLE without prior written approval. SPI will withhold payment on unauthorized double-brokered loads. Carrier is to immediately report all incidents affecting load deliver or condition to their operations contact. PAYMENT requires a signed Load Confirmation and acceptable Proof of Delivery sent with your Carrier Invoice via email to **APDOCS@SPI3PL.COM****
