INSTRUCTIONS

Bailey Farms International - BAILEPUT: On the attached file is the load confirmation that you are familiar with when we schedule trucks to pick up here I've highlighted just wanted to remind that we don't pay any detention redelivery or layover fees

Also we have a sign up here on our office for drivers to see I wrote it on the bottom of the and highlighted for you to read I would really appreciate when you dispatch the trucks please let their carriers know to tell their drivers know that if they need to fuel before arriving they need to do that before they scale in once they are scaled in we have to put our max weight product bales based on their light weight I had a few problems with drivers getting upset saying they needed to fuel and wanted us to take product off I know it sounds harsh but if their axels aren't past the legal weight then they are good to go and we wont take any product off their trailers I'm sorry for any inconvenience *****

Late Pickup/Delivery and missed check calls are subject to charges
